OPERATION FOR WILSON LIKELY; EXPERT CALLED; CONDITION IS WORSE

GENERAL IMPROVEMENT IN PRESIDENT'S CONDITION NOTED DURING PAST TWO WEEKS CHECKED BY RETURN OF SWELLING AND SUFFERING.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 17.—While President Wilson was feeling well today, his physicians said the prostatic condition from which he had been suffering for several days was checking the general improvement of the past two weeks.

Dr. Young will make a thorough examination of the swelling of the prostatic gland to determine whether an operation is necessary, Dr. Grayson said.

Prostatic Expert Called In.
Dr. Grayson announced that he had called in Dr. Hugo Young, of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, one of the foremost specialists in the country on prostatic troubles, and that he was expected at the White House some time today.

During the morning, the president was treated by Dr. Fowler, a Washington specialist, who was called in when the president first suffered this complication several days ago.

The doctors issued the following bulletin:
"The president passed a comfortable night and is feeling well this morning. His temperature, pulse, and urination rates are normal. The prostatic condition is not as satisfactory as yesterday and as general improvement of the past two weeks."

Gland Trouble Returns.
The physician said the swelling of the prostatic gland, from which the president had been free yesterday and the night before, returned in the early hours this morning and caused some irritation.

While the trouble might only be minor in character, Dr. Grayson said there was no doubt that it had retarded somewhat the progress the president had been making toward recovery.

Irritation accompanying this swelling of the prostate gland, he explained, was calculated to effect adversely the nervous conditions of the patient.

SUPERVISORS VOTE TO ENLARGE OFFICE OF REGISTER OF DEEDS

Enlargement of the register of deeds office in the basement of the court house was unanimously voted by the county board of supervisors at the close of the special session yesterday afternoon. The board appointed to investigate the conditions of the office was given full power to proceed with the necessary improvements. The board of supervisors was named chairman of the committee.

Register of Deeds F. P. Smiley was given authority to employ as many deputies as may be considered necessary at a salary not to exceed $100 per month.

There are now three months behind in its work due entirely to the unusual increase in real estate transfers, especially in Janesville. The board of supervisors stated today that he planned to hire two more deputies immediately making the total number of clerks seven. When the full complement of the office, only two deputies were employed.

Help, Woman Cries, Roomers Took Oil Can and Tin Cup

"Help!" cried a female voice over the phone last night as Desk Sergeant Harvey Jones picked up the receiver in response to a call. "I have been robbed by two roomers who left today when I raised them out of my room. They took my oil can and tin cup." The excited woman, who was nearly frantic, assured her that if she would tell her story everything possible would be done to recover the stolen goods.

According to the story the woman raised the rent of a couple residing at her house. They refused to abide by the increase and left. Before leaving, however, the woman said, they had taken an oil can, an aluminum cup, and other articles. She told the police she could readily identify the goods.

Chief of Police Thomas Morrissey and Officer Jones secured the new address of the couple and went after the goods. They succeeded in finding an oil can valued at about $1.75 and a cup of a like value.

Brazil Business Men Favor Ousting "Reds"

(By Associated Press.)
Rio Janeiro, Thursday, Oct. 16.—The Commercial Association, the most important commercial organization in Brazil, has sent a communication to the minister of justice commending the government's action in expelling anarchists from the country. A bill giving the government extraordinary powers in dealing with anarchists and other extremists has been adopted in the chamber of deputies.

Paris-Berlin Train Service Is Resumed

(By Associated Press.)
Paris, Oct. 17.—The first through train from Berlin to Paris since the war arrived in Paris today.

JACKIE BAND PUTS PEP IN RECRUITING DRIVE; PLAY CONCERT

The Jackie band which came yesterday to aid in a recruiting drive for the navy put a lot of pep in its music and as a result a crowd of nearly 1,000 attended the concert in the armory last night.

A. E. Matheson added to the enthusiasm of the meeting by discussing the advantages of a term of enlistment in the navy. After the concert those who wished danced to the strains of jazz music furnished by Uncle Sam's musicians. Two applications were received by Recruiting Officer Wagoner before the party left for Beloit. Indications point to an additional number before the drive ends.

The recruiting party was met at the Northwestern station yesterday afternoon by a reception committee composed of representative business men of the city. The parade was formed and marched to Court House park.

Recruiting Officer Here.
Recruiting Officer Wagoner from Madison this morning and will remain all day at the postoffice. After today any young men interested in enlisting will be met by Recruiting Officer J. Cunningham and get information. Mr. Ott will make frequent visits to Janesville in the interests of the drive.

The Jackie band under the leadership of Bandmaster Fred Norton was the best that has been heard in Janesville. The members are good musicians and injected into their parade and concert number the enthusiasm which inspires the crowds. Features of the concert were the cornet solo by Bandmaster Norton and "The Princess of India."

Mr. Matheson in his remarks impressed the audience with the state of the navy and the need for a young man to join the navy. He declared that an enlistment in the navy provided a wonderful training, both physical and manual, and such opportunities would be better fitted when he had ended his service to take his place in the navy.

Need of 100,000 men to man navy vessels was explained and he made an appeal to those who would like to make their applications at once. The Jackie band will arrive in Beloit tomorrow morning from the Beloit and Janesville concert party goes to Burlington from here.

Hope for Gompers' Return
Hope was expressed by labor delegates that Samuel Gompers, who has been suffering from a cold, would be able to resume his place today as leader of the labor delegation. Mr. Gompers' temperature was normal last night.

'BLOW-OUT' FOR BOYS WILL BE STAGED AT
'Y' TOMORROW NIGHT

A grand and glorious "blow-out" free to every grade school youngster in the city over 11 years of age will be staged in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium tomorrow evening, 7:30 to 9:30. Nearly 300 boys are expected to attend. All are invited.

A variety of games, novel relays, boxing exhibitions and other sports are on the program arranged by Physical Director W. P. Craig and A. C. Preston, boys' work secretary. The affair will wind up with a free-for-all peanut scramble, in which 50 pounds of peanuts will be used.

Boys are asked to come promptly at 7:30 and to bring their tennis shoes.

Murder and Robbing of Hostages Is Told

(By Associated Press.)
Berlin, Oct. 17.—The trial of the accused of the murder of the Munich hostages continued in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. The campaign will be waged sometime during November, it was necessary to raise only $30,000 instead of the $43,000.

Enrollments for the coming campaign are large according to J. M. Dorrans, vocational superintendent. Commercial and dressmaking classes are still the most popular and are well filled. Two more may be taken into the physical culture class, which is fast filling up.

Incorporation of the Bank of Southern Wisconsin under the state laws was completed yesterday with the filing of articles with the register of deeds. The capital stock of the bank will be $100,000. Articles of incorporation were signed by Morton R. Fish, A. E. Matheson, George Tallman, John W. Dady, and C. H. Gage.

Whist and Dance Funds Don't Go for Church

(By Associated Press.)
London, Oct. 17.—The bishop of Chelmsford has barred money raised from "whist drives and dances" from a fund of $1,250,000 which the people of Essex are trying to collect for church extension. Writing to his people concerning these amusements the bishop declared: "Both may be legitimate forms of recreation but they are not methods of the church for raising money. I have never heard of either being opened or closed with prayer."

Author in Sick Ward of London Workhouse

(By Associated Press.)
London, Oct. 17.—Elizabeth Vitzel, who made the name of Emilia Zola known in England through his comprehensive translation of that French author's works, and who for many years occupied a high position in the London literary world, was today an inmate of the sick ward in the North London Workhouse. Discovery of her impoverished condition immediately set on foot a movement to have his trouble relieved. The London City Council has placed on the pension list.

Farmer Jolly

Miss Doris Milmore has written a series of verses for the Gazette under the caption, "Farmer Jolly." The first will appear tomorrow and will be followed by others. The verses are about a jolly old fellow who takes life as it comes and tells of everything that will appeal to all. Read how Farmer Jolly obtained a car. Adventures follow his purchase.

HIGHER SALARIES FOR MINISTERS IS GOAL OF BAPTISTS

The session of last evening brought to a close the greatest convention ever held by the Baptists in the state of Wisconsin. Beside the record attendance of 280 delegates and 126 visitors who registered, there were splendid addresses and large audiences of local people.

The report of the treasurer, H. W. Bardenweber, Milwaukee, showed a small surplus of $1,400 in the treasury for the first time in years, although that is more than balanced by the sum of $25,000 borrowed by the board of managers to pay past indebtedness.

A discussion of the state survey of the denominational work held yesterday morning, and was by R. Ashworth, Milwaukee, disclosed the fact that the street sweepers of Milwaukee were paid a better living wage than the average minister in the state. Cooperation of the convention was pledged in making this fact known, and rousing the people to a better realization of the need for higher salaries. It was recommended that no church with a membership of 100 members should receive state assistance, but should be encouraged to pay its own bills.

Combination of small churches under one pastor, was discussed and it was suggested that the churches of Wisconsin, especially in the rural neighborhoods, must be a center of Americanization among the foreign population.

At this meeting resolutions endorsing higher salaries for ministers, endorsing the work of the Anti-Slavery League, and the Lord's Day alliance, and giving thanks for the hospitality of Janesville were adopted.

Obituary Committee Reports.
A report of the obituary committee, L. G. Catchpole, chairman, was read. It showed that there had been a loss of membership by death during the past year of 12 members.

A conference led by J. E. Hill, Beloit on "How We Shall Educate Our Members," brought out the idea that to win the vital difference between the Baptist faith and other denominations. He recommended that the pastor should make a point of showing his own people in these distinctions.

Rev. W. C. Osborne, Madison, led a discussion on lay preachers, and he brought out the idea that it is much easier to find leaders for the social and educational side of the church life than to find spiritual leaders.

Women Elect Officers.
An election of officers for the Women's State Missionary society was held at the annual session with the president, Mrs. R. A. Ashworth, Milwaukee, presiding. The report of the nominating committee was accepted and the following were elected: President, Mrs. R. A. Ashworth, Milwaukee; first vice, Mrs. W. S. Hahn, Madison; second vice, Mrs. S. W. Phelps, Milwaukee; recording secretary, Mrs. F. N. Webster, Beloit; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. B. Lemon, Milwaukee.

There were 60 members of the society elected to the executive committee. The board met in the evening at the hotel. The board met in the evening at the hotel.

Exporters Approve Diplomatic Staff

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Oct. 17.—Establishment of a central diplomatic staff to make all appointments in the diplomatic and consular service, and to coordinate the work of the various departments, is recommended in a committee report presented today to the convention of the American Manufacturers' Export association.

The staff would consist of the secretary of state as chairman and ex-officio members of the departments of the army and navy, the state department, and the diplomatic service and subject to confirmation by the senate.

U. S. Not in on New Peace Commission

(By Associated Press.)
Paris, Thursday, Oct. 16.—Immediately after formal ratification of the treaty of peace with Germany, the supreme council of the peace conference will probably name a coordination commission, the duties of which will be to decide what bodies shall have jurisdiction over matters not definitely assigned by the treaty. This commission will, in a way, carry on part of the work which has been performed by the supreme council, which is expected to close within six weeks.

Manifestly the United States cannot be represented on this co-ordination committee until she ratifies the treaty.

The work of the American delegation will be largely advisory, but there is a general disposition to consult American representatives on all important matters relative to the execution of the treaty terms.

Jackie Trombonist Finds Dad Who Was Thought to Be Dead

One Jackie, a member of the band which accompanied the recruiting party which visited Janesville yesterday, was able to push his chest out just a little farther and make music on his slide trombone with more dash and spirit than he ordinarily did.

He found his Dad after he had for more than a year believed him dead in France. Yesterday in a local home and son met. The reunion was a happy one.

TITLED MARRIAGE HAPPY

Viscountess Maidstone, who was Miss Margaretta Drexel before her marriage, is expected to arrive in the U. S. from England shortly. Her marriage to the viscount has proved to be one of the happiest of intermarriages between the two countries, and her return is causing much interest.

FITZGERALD HANGS FOR MURDERING OF JANET WILKINSON

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Oct. 17.—Thomas Fitzgerald, who on July 12 murdered Janet Wilkinson, aged 16, was hanged today. He said he killed her because she screamed when he took her into his room to give her candy.

The crime to which Fitzgerald confessed and for which he was sentenced to be hanged was one of the most revolting in the criminal annals of this city.

Fitzgerald, employed as a night watchman, was a highly reputable resident house near by. He was arrested in connection with the disappearance of Janet Wilkinson, whose parents lived in the same building. Suspicion was directed against him chiefly because the little girl had told her parents a story of mistreatment by him after having been called into his room last December.

After five days of grueling at the hands of the police, the prisoner confessed he had strangled the girl July 22, the day she failed to return home, and had hidden the body under a pile of coal in the basement.

The story was that he was sitting at the window of his room the evening of the murder, his wife being in Michigan, when he saw little Janet passing in the street. He called to her, asking if she wanted some candy and drew her in through the window. The child was frightened and started to scream, he said, adding:

"Before I knew what I was doing I had my hands about her neck and had strangled her. I must be what they say I am, a degenerate."

Fitzgerald was 39 years old and was termed by Dr. J. Whitney Hall, a leading lunacy expert, as a "psycho-sexual case" but not necessarily insane. The newspapers and other criminologists referred to him as a "morose" who he finally broke down under police examination, Fitzgerald poured out a torrent of self-confessions and never attempted to excuse his crime, saying merely that he felt better after he had confessed.

Washington Notified Capture Is Confirmed; London Doubts.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Reports of the capture of Kronstadt by northern Russian forces under General Yudenitch were received at the state department today from an American general Petrus in Sweden on the Finnish border.

Kronstadt Falls to British.
Petrograd, Oct. 17.—Kronstadt, the great fortress standing sentinel to the gate to Petrograd, the former Russian capital, has capitulated to British troops, which after launching a terrific bombardment entered the place. The fall of this bastion of the defense of Petrograd, appears to seal the fate of the city.

Yudenitch at the head of the northern Russian army is standing virtually before Petrograd. Reports received from Petrograd are reported to be leaving Petrograd, a mutiny among the men having broken out.

Bolshevik Take Kiev.
Bolshevik troops are said to have captured Kiev but in this region the situation is obscure. It was reported last week that Kiev was in the hands of General Petrus's Ukrainian army which advanced against General Denikin's left flank following Petrus's declaration of war on the Bolsheviks.

Further details of the situation south of Moscow have not been received. It appears the bolsheviks are making rapid advances which have been ordered to retire.

Reports Are Doubtful.
London, Thursday, Oct. 16.—The march of General Yudenitch at the head of the northwestern Russian army on the city of Petrograd was still progressing favorably, it was reported today. There appeared some doubt today whether the fortress of Kronstadt, outpost at the water approach to Petrograd, had capitulated to British naval forces, as indicated in reports during the night.

Confirmation of reports that naval forces have taken Kronstadt has not been received at the admiralty offices here. Dispatches telling of the capitulation of Kronstadt are not credited, it being said the British navy is still in the vicinity, which are incapable of successfully challenging the fortress.

The latest authoritative news regarding the military situation in southern Russia is that the army of General Denikin on the extreme left of the line has taken Chernivka, a town of 10,000 inhabitants, along the east bank of the Dnieper river toward Gomel.

On the right flank the forces of General Denikin have crossed the Don on a hundred-mile front. Everywhere the army is driving back the bolsheviks.

In east Russia the bolshevik forces are compelled to adopt purely defensive tactics.

Prince Brings Re-enforcements, Stockholm, Thursday, Oct. 16.

General Yudenitch, whose northwestern Russian army is marching on Petrograd, has been reinforced by troops commanded by Prince Peter Lieven and volunteers from Archangel who now form the vanguard of the advance of the former Russian capital, according to dispatches to the Dagbladet.

Rock Island, Oct. 17.—Lieut. B. W. Maynard left Rock Island for Chicago at 1:59:57 p. m.

Lieut. W. B. Maynard was given an ovation by an enormous crowd on his arrival here at 1:59:57 p. m. The 158 mile trip in 83 minutes, breaking his record for the same leg of the journey on his trip.

Within an hour of the expected arrival of Lieutenant Maynard, the crowd was still at the contest, one from the west and the other from the east, left the Rock Island flying field shortly after 11 o'clock.

Smith in Cleveland.
Cleveland, O., Oct. 17.—Capt. L. H. Smith, flying from Minnecota to San Francisco, landed here in the transcontinental race landed here from Buffalo at 1:05:20 p. m., making the 187 miles in 86 minutes.

Kiel Leaves Minnecota.
Minnecota, N. Y., Oct. 17.—In the face of a strong northwest wind blowing from the west, Capt. L. H. Smith, with Sgt. Frank McKee as a passenger started on the return flight to San Francisco at 9:42:12 o'clock this morning.

An air service plane received word from Washington today that all machines entered in the race will have Minnecota on the first half of the journey. The race will not be permitted to make the return trip.

Second Lieut. Queens started on his return flight at 11:22:45 a. m. Major Capt. Spatz, who reached Buffalo this morning on his return flight to San Francisco informed the local press that he had a telephone conversation today that he desired to withdraw from the race. He expressed a wish to turn his machine over to Capt. L. H. Smith, whose airplane was burned at Buffalo while being repaired.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 17.—Lieut. Otto Malmstrom, who spent last night at Salt Lake City, left for this city at 7:15 this morning and will arrive in Salt Lake City tomorrow morning shortly after 9 a. m.

Capt. J. O. Donaldson, also east-bound, who reached Rawlins last night, was still at that point according to latest reports. Lieut. J. T. Johnson, Major E. L. Lyon, and Lieut. G. H. Gale, all west-bound, were reported to have left Rawlins.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 17.—Lieut. Alexander Pearson, Jr., flying east-bound, left for this city at 7:15 this morning and will arrive in Lincoln tomorrow morning shortly after 9 a. m.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Restored to competition in the army endurance race, the Liberty bomber, which was damaged at Washington after their ships had been so badly damaged that both were forced to land at Rock Island, was reported to have left Rawlins.

Return 100 Miles West.
The leaders planned to return to St. Paul, Minn., 100 miles west of their new start. That would permit him to take advantage of the lapsed flying time on the entire trip.

In the west, flying was stopped and the race landed at San Francisco, bringing the total number to reach that terminus 13 of 47 starters. Six of 15 who began the flight at Rock Island had reached their destination yesterday.

Seventeen flyers still are struggling toward the Golden Gate.

NEW SYSTEM FOR OIL
DELIVERIES BECOMES EFFECTIVE MONDAY

Effective Monday the sale of kerosene oil in Janesville will be discontinued by grocers the business conducted in the future by the Janesville Delivery company. Merchants will continue the sale of kerosene to farmers and other people to the route covered by the delivery company.

A new oil delivery wagon has been purchased. This will be used to make regular trips throughout the city. Every house in the city will be furnished a card which is to be placed in a conspicuous window when the owner wants oil. The card is similar to that under which ice is distributed.

Until these cards are distributed throughout the city it will be necessary for housewives desiring deliveries of oil to phone to the Janesville Delivery company, and the oil will be delivered the following day.

The new system was secured through the efforts of Alexander Jacobson, former secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and the local Chamber of Commerce.

"Handling oil in this manner will eliminate its being carried on wagons loaded with groceries and provisions thus doing away with the possibility of a leak in an oil can allowing the contents to flow over other merchandise," said Mr. Jacobson.

PRESENT POPULATION
OF CITY IS 17,000
ACCORDING TO C. OF C.

Janesville's present population is 17,000 according to conservative estimates made by the Chamber of Commerce. This is an increase of 30 percent over the last federal census taken in 1910 which showed the city to have a population of 13,394.

These statistics together with other interesting information about the city are contained in the new letterhead used by the Chamber of Commerce for the first time today.

Some of the information about the city contained in the list follows: Population 17,000; payroll in 1918, $4,131,900; total value of manufactured products last year, $10,000,000; total bank resources Sept. 12, 1919, $3,926,825; number of persons employed for wage in 1918, 4,581.

There are 78,538 persons living within a radius of 25 miles of Janesville. Total property valuation $18,400,949; 88 miles of streets, 16 miles paved and 12 miles macadamized; 30 miles of sewer; lighter by 128 boulevard post lights, 522 100-candlepower lights; 12 250 candlepower lights and 400-candlepower light.

COUNTY PREPARES FOR $5,000,000 CAMPAIGN

Organization of Rock county for the $5,000,000 campaign to be staged in November to raise money for the eight Wisconsin small colleges will be completed at a dinner and meeting to be held at the Myers hotel at 6:30 Monday evening.

The affair is being arranged by A. E. Matheson, who has been appointed one of the campaign officials having charge of the drive in six counties.

Fifty of the leading business and professional men of Rock county are expected to attend the organization meeting, Dr. Melvin A. Bronson, president of Beloit college, and Dr. C. C. Daland, president of Milton college, are expected to be present at the meeting.

BENEFITS OF "Y" TO NEWCOMERS OUTLINED

Speaking in connection with the coming $20,000 financial campaign of the Y. M. C. A., to be waged Oct. 20-26, Sec. J. A. Steiner today spoke of the benefits realized by newcomers to the city as noted during his brief time in Janesville.

"The reading and social room at the Y," since removed to the main lobby, is being used most extensively and it can be seen that the change is appreciated by the men coming into the building," said Mr. Steiner.

"Perhaps the hardest day in the week for a young man living away from home is Sunday. A quiet place in which to spend the day in productive reading is in the Y. M. C. A. building. During certain hours last Sunday all the chairs in the lobby were occupied by men reading and enjoying the fire in the open fireplace. Here, too, men met friends.

"The question is, where would these men spend these hours were the Y. M. C. A. not available? It is the man who is away from home who appreciates the Y. M. C. A. He has not created frequent other places which would not be to his taste and which demoralize rather than elevate.

"With many young men coming to Janesville to work, one of the problems of the association has been to find places in which these men may live. The Y dormitories have been constantly filled and more can be accommodated in the building. Last week 125 young men applied at the office for rooming places. The association would appreciate knowing where desirable rooms are available.

"Janesville needs a larger Y. M. C. A. building with at least 150 dormitory rooms in the very near future."

No Wonder It's So Good

—Made from Coconuts and Milk

There's a very good reason for the famous quality of Troco—for its sweet delicate flavor and perfect texture. It is made from the dainty nut fat extracted from the white meat of coconuts and churned with pasteurized milk. It is appetizing, wholesome and nutritious—the scientific combination of the food standbys of the Tropic and Temperate Zones.

Such quality naturally makes Troco your ultimate choice, once you try it. You can pay more but you can't buy finer flavor, sweetness and delicateness, than you enjoy in Troco. Every pound will save you from 25 to 40 cents—the final argument for the adoption of Troco.

We churn Troco daily and ship daily, on ice. Dealers should order in small quantities and always keep Troco in their ice box to protect its sweetness and delicacy to the time of using.

If your grocer hasn't Troco in perfect condition send his name to the Troco Nut Butter Company, Chicago. There are many similar products, but only one Troco.

WHY THE JOINTS?
A dispatch from Chicago the other day told how King Albert of Belgium "ran the locomotive of his own train for 10 miles. The sovereign, who has a thorough knowledge of locomotive engineering, ran the heavy train for 10 miles without a job. Then he stopped it and returned to his car."
Some persons whose business necessitates considerable traveling can't help wishing King Albert would assume the role of instructor for American engineers, or at least for those who pilot the particular trains on which they have to journey, for it is certain that many of our men at the throttle have not acquired the art of starting and stopping without a series of jolts and jerks that add much to the discomfort and fatigue of railway travel in this country.
A few years ago Col. George Harvey sent a circular letter of inquiry to the operating heads of the principal American railways, asking why European engineers are able to start and stop their trains so smoothly while in our own country passengers have come to expect to be thrown around every time their train departs from or arrives at a station. In a subsequent article in Harper's Weekly he said he had not received a single reply to his courteous request for information.
More recently Owen Wister, a veteran traveler, has complained in print of this idiosyncrasy of American locomotive engineers, drawing a contrast between the comfort of railway travel in Europe and at home. The jolting is especially annoying to those who travel at night in the so-called "sleeping" cars. Excellence of roadbed does not seem able to obviate the discomfort. Is it a lack of carefulness or of skill on the part of our engineers?
A long train glides out of a London terminal so gently that one is scarcely aware of the movement. It comes to a stop without a jar. It may be said that our heavy steel coaches are responsible for the annoyance, but it would seem that there should be some way to mitigate the inevitable jolting.
Perhaps King Albert will kindly impart his secret to some of our engineers.

AN OBJECT LESSON
In speaking of the official bulletins of President Wilson's illness, a physician the other day remarked that it contained an object lesson for every business and professional man who is not combining with his daily routine a due proportion of mental and physical recreation.
When Mr. Wilson first entered the white house Dr. Grayson discovered that he had not been in the habit of taking exercise regularly. The physician at once proceeded to get the president interested in golf, with highly beneficial results. Before our country entered the war President Wilson was accustomed to visit the links almost daily. When time did not permit of this diversion he took walks, with Mrs. Wilson as his companion. There is no question that he experienced a substantial improvement in health during this period.
Then came the war and America's participation in it and the times of wholesome diversion and relaxation became fewer and shorter.
When Colonel Roosevelt as president began to feel worn by his official duties he packed up his guns and went hunting, returning with renewed energy to his public tasks. He seemed to have the faculty of throwing off the burden of responsibility at will and resuming it when better fitted to bear it. No busy man can afford to neglect physical exercise and recreation. He should realize that it is as much his duty as attending to the affairs of his business or profession.

HIS MONUMENT
A dentist in a western Pennsylvania town, is planning his monument for his grave when he dies. It is to consist of a great pillar of concrete covered with thousands of teeth drawn from the mouths of his patients in his years of practice.
The dentist, in a newspaper article, says that he has barrels of the teeth in his cellar that he has been saving for his tombstone.
"It will show the people that I have been of some use in the world," explains the dentist.
If every tooth he plans to place on his tombstone was an aching tooth—and it is unlikely that each tooth ached before it was pulled—the dentist would have no real cause for using the teeth as a grave marker.
People don't like to see the teeth they have lost. They hate to be reminded of their past trials and tribulations, and a drawn tooth makes shivers run up and down the average person's back.
The dentist will be doing the cemetery an injustice if he places his shaft as he plans it.
-It is better that he sell his teeth to the dental colleges for the students to experiment with. Then the world will be the gainer. A tooth-monument will always be a reminder to the world that there is such a thing as an aching tooth. And that is a cruelty.

WANTS MORE AIR.
Women physicians claim that New York doesn't provide enough air for her inhabitants.
New York probably never thought of that before. And unless the physicians' union gets busy, New York will go right along without thinking of it.
New York is a disease. Once it catches you you are a goner. And those from small towns and cities are the persons who catch the disease the worst.
But the lack of air in large cities, and especially the lack of sunlight, has forced many a father with a family to the smaller towns and to the farms.
And it is the farm, and the smaller towns, where American home life is at its best.
The "back-to-the-farm" movement would cure a lot of such disease as bolshevism, strike-ism and profit-eating-ism.

Anent the campaign to increase pastors' salaries, it occurs that perhaps some congregations emphasize their belief that the Lord will provide, because if he does it will be money in their pockets.

In lifting the ban on American soldiers fraternizing with Germans, but forbidding marriages, the authorities appear to be bidding for defiance of the regulations when propinquity acts so powerfully.

It's all right to make much ado about the pastor's compensation being found in the joy of his service, but

BUILDING A HOME.
Buildin' a home! Well, I reckon that's fun, Because it's a job that you never get done; For after the plannin' an' worry an' fuss, An' the carpenters quit an' you clean up the muss, An' the buildin' is finished, you collar to done, You've got to get busy an' make it a home.

Home must be built out o' laughter an' tears, It's got to be aged by the passin' of years; It's got to be perfumed by memories sweet, An' carelessly raced through by glad little feet, An' though mother may fret some when company calls, There's got to be thumb marks all over the walls.

It's a job you can't hurry or do to a plan— Home isn't built to the whim of a man. The Lord takes a hand long before you are through, In buildin' an' shapin' the dwellin' for you; He comes to a place that the mother an' father, An' it glows as the room where the baby was born.

You may guard it from danger as much as you will, But sorrow and grief shall come into it still; An' you shall discover when weepin' is o'er, The old home is dearer to you than before. There shall linger an' it shall be memories rare Of the wonderful spirit that used to be there.

Buildin' a Home! Well, I reckon that's fun, Because it's a job that you never get done. Each day brings its changes of gladness or woe, 'Till dearer an' richer to you it must grow. So fill it with love an' it'll be memories rare, 'Till as the home of your souls it appears.

Sketches From Life—By Temple

What About Hoover?
By FREDERIC J. HASKIN, Director
Janesville Daily Gazette Information Bureau,
Washington, D. C.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—Although the day when a new president of the United States will be elected is little more than a year off, the identity of that man is as much a matter of speculation as the weather two weeks from tomorrow. The political expert to know as little about it as the man in the street. They are debating whether to capture the public imagination with a military hero, or whether to elect a man who has been doing it for the past five years. There is not a man in the world more familiar with this need than the world's conqueror. There is no man who has given more thought to the problem of meeting it than this military engineer—this practical man who knows how to get things done. He is what people are beginning to say wherever you care to listen.

The second great problem facing the next president will be that of establishing the United States in the world. Obviously this is a task to which the provincial politician would not be equal. It will be a task to which the man to take up the thread of international relations, and follow it intelligently. But Hoover has sat in on the most practical phases of all that has been done in the last five years. It is doubtful if there is another American who knows European conditions as does Hoover. He was a cosmopolitan before he came here. He has lived and worked all around the globe. Those who figure candidates because of their fitness rather than with an eye to political expediency are saying things of Hoover.

While all of this gossip has been going on, Herbert Hoover has been living quietly at his home in Palo Alto, Calif. The other day, he happened to make a speech. He talked of the league of nations. He had been a politician he would have realized the danger of talking on this subject. But his discussion was a revelation in its simplicity and directness. He said that the meeting at Versailles had been called to settle a peace for Germany, not to settle all the ills of the world. It had made peace and had settled some of the ills but this latter was incidental. The United States had not got all it wanted at Versailles. The league was not satisfactory. But it had got all it could out of a difficult situation, in the face of the European state of mind. It is an order of things to which we have been able to get used. It should be accepted and we should proceed to evolve from it an organization that is always better, looking forward.

Speech Was Masterpiece
His speech was a masterpiece. Both wings in the senate can endorse what he said. Almost everybody believes that he has pointed the way.

These folks who are talking of Hoover for president are taking the back track on him. See it his record is such as to appeal for votes. They are finding unexpected possibilities. Why, the man is the son of a blacksmith, born in West Branch, Iowa, in 1874. He worked his way through school. He graduated as a mining engineer and grabbed the first job he could get in an engineering office. He was a stenographer. Yet at 27 he was a millionaire—a clean millionaire whom nobody can criticize, who had made his money by honest means. He has been separating metal from dirt ever since in many parts of the world and has accumulated much money. But he has done it with a clean conscience and without antagonizing labor.

Here is an American whose life is a romance, who has passed all the tests, who has proven himself in many stupendous emergencies. The people are looking him over. He may ride down Pennsylvania avenue a year from next March at the head of the inaugural parade.

Voice of the People

To the Editor: We are all interested in any project that will promote peace on earth, good will to men. Will the proposed league of nations if affirmed do that? The great majority of the people, it seems to me, believe that it will. There are, however, a few seeming doubtful provisions that cause not a few to hesitate in giving the league their full support. I will mention a few of the points of rights of Germany in the Shantung province in China which under the treaty is transferred to Japan.

As we put in question in its historical setting. In 1897 two Catholic priests were murdered by a mob in Shantung. Germany the following year used the murder as a pretext, forced China to give her a 99-year lease on Kiaochow and extended rights in the Shantung province. In the late war, England and France, desiring the aid of Japan on the Pacific, made a treaty with Japan agreeing that if Japan would go in and dispossess Germany of her holdings in China, Japan should retain what had belonged to Germany. That treaty now stands.

Now then, are we willing to go to war with Great Britain and France over the Shantung question? If we by altering the treaty should force Japan out of the league are we willing by force to compel Japan to relinquish her lease held upon China's territory?

But Japan promised May 25, 1915, in an exchange of notes with China, upon the termination of the war to restore the leased territory to China. Viscount Veldie, Japanese minister for foreign affairs, on January 11, 1919, stated that Kiaochow would be returned to China in accordance with the agreement of May 25, 1915. Japan holds the Shantung province now by virtue of conquest. In reality Japan does not possess the province until Germany transfers her rights to Japan under the treaty. That will not be done until the peace treaty is ratified. Therefore, Japan cannot now hand back to China something that she does not yet possess. Even supposing that Japan is reluctant to keep her word, justice for China is more promising under the league than under the present situation now with the United States in it.

Sick Die by Dozens in Filthy Boxcars in Siberia; R. C. Aids

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Omsk, Thursday, Oct. 16.—The American Red Cross has undertaken to establish and administer quarantine stations along the trans-Siberian railroad in an effort to stamp out typhus, which is spreading at the alarming rate. The work was undertaken at the request of Admiral Kolchak.

Conditions may be judged from observation made by Colonel Tiedor, en-route to this city from the east. At Inokentievskaya, near Irkutsk, he found 300 patients, in a boxcar with 1,000 other patients, among whom there are from 20 to 30 deaths daily. Several thousand more in a similar condition were found between Irkutsk and Omsk, all being virtually without attention.

A. The average weight of the ashes of the cremated body of an adult is from one to three pounds.

How much did the United States pay Mexico for the territory of New Mexico and upper California? A. H. C.

A. The treasury department says that we paid Mexico $15,000,000 for this territory.

Q. What is the procedure for conducting business meetings according to parliamentary rules? A. M.

A. The regular order of procedure for such a meeting is as follows: Call to order, roll call, reading of the minutes, discussion of unfinished business, report of committees, old business, new business.

Q. What is the "Star of David" like? H. B. H.

A. This symbol of Judaism which is commonly called a six-pointed star, is formed by the combination of two equilateral triangles. It has six points and is known as the Magen David, or David's Shield.

Q. What does El Dorado mean? W. P.

A. Eldorado refers to a country or city that is immensely rich in gold and silver. The early Spanish explorers believed such a place to be in the new world. It has come to be applied to any region thought to be wealthy.

Q. Is it customary for a business acquaintance to acknowledge an announcement of a church wedding? A. W. C.

A. Yes. It is quite proper upon receiving a wedding announcement from a business friend to send a card of congratulation. This is also true in the case of receiving an invitation to a church wedding, but not to the reception or an at home card.

Q. When did the trans-Atlantic steamship service come into use? G. R.

A. Steamship service between this country and Europe was inaugurated with the first voyage of the American steamship Savannah, in 1835. Two British vessels, the Great Western and Sirius, also sailed in 1835.

Q. If an American woman marries an unnaturalized Belgian who has been in this country 10 years, is she still a citizen of the United States? A. A.

A. No. She takes the nationality of her husband upon marriage.

Q. Did an American citizen who joined the Canadian forces before we declared war lose his right to citizenship? W. W.

A. When he took the oath of allegiance to Great Britain on joining the Canadian forces he forfeited his American citizenship, according to the act of March 2, 1917. He may be repatriated by appearing before the clerk of any court authorized to naturalize aliens and renewing his oath of allegiance to this government.

Pershing Tree To Be Planted in Mt. Vernon

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Oct. 17.—Friday afternoon, Oct. 24, a Pershing tree, brought from the A. B. Pershing planters in France by John S. Donald, former secretary of state, will be planted at the village of Mt. Vernon, Dane county, the country home of Mr. Donald. The tree is one of several spruces obtained by the chief forester of France from the chateau where General Pershing had his headquarters.

Begy's Yellow Mustarine in Yellow Box

Very soon the people of this city and state will know through the newspapers what the best and quickest killer on earth is.

A wonderful external remedy that often ends influenza, cold in the chest, sore throat, pleurisy or bronchitis over night.

It's called Begy's Mustarine and thousands of people who have suffered from the agonizing pains of these ailments have found speedy, sure and blessed relief with one application. Begy's Mustarine is a powerful, hot water solution that does not get into the blood and there is more concentrated non-blistering heat in a box of Begy's Mustarine than can be put in any other box of the same size.

Just tell your customers to rub on Begy's Mustarine; it is very penetrating and can't blister.

Tell them to use it for sprains and strains, for lumbago, neuritis, sciatica and neuralgia.

Remember that people who use quick-acting Begy's Mustarine once never go back to slow-acting remedies that may do good or may not. It's used extensively for swellings, pains and aches of all kinds, and just as soon as the people get to know how much better it is than liniments, salves, poultices, plasters, hot water bottles and the like, the demand will exceed your expectations.

Get your order in today—your job has it—and remember that if for any reason it does not sell, you can get your money back.

Remember also that in selling Begy's Mustarine to your customers that he guarantees it to do just what we say it will do.

And if it doesn't give the customer his money back and we will make good.

S. C. Wells and Co., L. Roy, N. Y., makers of Celery King, Dr. Carter's K. & B. Tea, Shiloh and other good remedies.

THE RENO ROAD.
The Reno Road is the worst road in the world. As a matter of fact it is but the dead skeleton of a road which in early days linked together two of those army posts of the west which served the purpose of enforcing the white man's view of life upon the Indian.
Port Reno was in the bottom of Tonto Basin, that cup in the mountains which has since become the reservoir which holds the water ennobled by Roosevelt Dam, in Arizona. Thirty miles away toward Phoenix, lie the remains of what was once Fort McDowell. It is on the banks of the Verde river and an ancient artesian well still bubbles forth among its ruins. Barnack, some built of adobe still stand, smothered in the chaparral.
Mule teams of the army used to link these posts together across the mountain range. There is a six-mile hill running into Tonto Basin and the road hugs the walls of its cañons, sometimes being cut into the solid rock. The road has been little used for a generation and it often becomes necessary to jack up the axle of your buckboard to get it over a boulder.
Half way up the hill the road turns across the cañon and there is a hundred feet of level road. Beside it grows an ancient paloverde tree, with skin as smooth as a yucca.
On this level space the wagons of thousands of frontiersmen have rested that the teams might be rested. Idle drivers have cut their initials, those of their sweethearts, or messages, or expletives, into the bark of the tree. Particularly close by the road is an expletive. It is a record, an archive, in its peculiar way, of the vigorous outbursts of the frontier. The badness of the road has worked these travelers to a frenzy of forceful expression and they have immortalized their sentiments in the smooth bark.
Try our pure cottage cheese. It is delicious and healthful.

AMUSEMENTS

APOLLO.
A well balanced vaudeville bill of four acts drew much applause from the packed house at the Apollo theater last night. It was pronounced by many to be the equal of any of the high class programs that have been shown there the past four weeks.
Roth, Mitchell and Roth with their comedy sketch, "The Wop and the Cop," proved to be the hit of the bill last night. The "wop" put on a line of chatter that went across well.
The great Shirley, the saxophone "king," is easily one of the best saxophonists who has ever been heard here. He mixes in a little jazz with his act and shows marked ability with his instrument.
A comedy conglomeration by Moore and Gray was fairly well applauded. Their line of talk caused a number of good laughs, while their singing and dancing also scored a hit.
A novelty whistling act entitled "June Time," with examples of whistling to lead their notes with the tone of the whistler, although not the feature act of the bill, was well applauded.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD

Author of
"Kittler, and Other Poems"

Copyright by Harper & Brothers

Conward's vivid face had become white and it was with difficulty he controlled his anger. "They are all printed that way," he explained. "I am going to have them indorsed over to me."

"You are not," said Dave. "You are charging this woman twenty-five thousand dollars for a horse that was worth ten thousand. The firm of Conward & Elden will have nothing to do with that transaction. It won't even endorse it over."

A fine was burning in the grate. Dave walked to it very slowly and deliberately thrust the agreement in to the flame.

"Well, if that doesn't heat all," Mrs. Hardy ejaculated. "Are all cow-punchers so discourteous?"

"I mean no discourtesy," said Dave. "If my behavior has seemed abrupt, I assure you I have only sought to secure for Doctor Hardy's widow—and his daughter."

"It is a peculiar service," Mrs. Hardy answered, "apologize for my part in your behavior," said Conward. "I need not, however, effect the transaction in the slightest degree. A new agreement will be drawn at once—an agreement in which the firm of Conward & Elden will not be concerned."

"That will be more satisfactory," said Mrs. Hardy. She intended the remark for Dave's ears, but he had moved to a corner of the room and was conversing in low tones with Irene.

"I am sorry I had to make your mother's acquaintance under circumstances which I fear, she will not even try to understand," he had said to Irene.

"Oh, Dave—Mr. Elden. I mean—that you don't know how proud—"

"I don't know how much of a man you made me feel you are. She was flushed and excited. "Perhaps I shouldn't talk like this. Perhaps—"

"It all depends on one thing," Dave interrupted. "What is that?"

"It all depends on whether we are Miss Hardy and Mr. Elden or whether we are still Conward and Dave."

Her bright eyes had fallen to the floor and he could see the tremor of her fingers as they rested on the back of a chair. She did not answer him directly. But in a moment she spoke.

"Mother will buy the horse from Mr. Conward," she said. "She is like that. And when we are settled you

Resinol makes sick skins well

Have You a "Gone" Feeling? Fagged Out in the Morning?

Do you get any rest at night? Or are your nights filled with nightmare? In the morning you are more fatigued than the evening before?

Many suffer needlessly from kidney trouble. The function of the kidney is to filter the blood. If they fail in this, your life is made unhappy by poisoned blood coursing through your veins, making you irritable, stupid, quick-tempered and utterly miserable all the time.

Stop it! Your only hope is in awakening your slacker kidneys—putting them to work at purging your system of germ-laden waste matter.

Dodd's Kidney Pills will aid you effectively in cleaning your system of all poisons, restoring tired organs and muscles, making you the road to good health. Make your life a series of bright, happy days. Each morning to be looked forward to as a time of good cheer. Open up the windows—enjoy the fresh air. Don't be a slave to ill health.

You can get Dodd's Kidney Pills (three D's in the name) at your druggist, unless he's sold out. Then send 50¢ in stamps for the full, round box. Address: Dodd Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

ARE YOU CONSTIPATED? Diamond Dinner Pills are mild, cathartic that are healthful and pleasing. No ill after-effects

"Parks says he was first attracted by his wife's voice."

"And now he is distracted by it."

"Well, how do you like our bathing conveniences?" said the proprietor of a bathing machine at Hastings.

"I am afraid I cannot give you a attering answer. In fact, my bathing suit was too large and kept coming off."

"No; the machine into which you sent me to dress was very dark and wet; the mirror was cracked, and I was greatly annoyed by rats."

"Is that so, Mr. Dobbs? hope you found no other vexations."

"Well, no; only your towels were wet, your comb contained only two teeth, standing apart in isolated section at each end, and the man in the next machine reached over and stole my watch."

"I am sorry, indeed. But is there nothing connected with the establishment worthy of praise?"

"Oh, yes, Mr. admiral. You have a very fine ocean attached to your bathing establishment. Indeed, sir, you can compliment yourself on having one of the best oceans in this vicinity."

"Are you sure you love me?" said a pretty girl to her admirer.

"Love you?" echoed the smitten one. "Why, darling, while I was bidding you good-by on the porch last night, your dog ate a piece out of the calf of my leg, and I never noticed it till I got home."

"Pa," asked little Willie, "what's the meaning of the prophets of evil?"

"I suppose, my son," replied Mr.

BITRO-PHOSPHATE IS GOOD FOR THIN NERVOUS PEOPLE

A French scientist has discovered an organic phosphate which should be a very effective remedy for weak nerves, sleeplessness, thinness and lack of strength, energy and vigor.

This substance is described by specialists as identical in composition with certain vital elements naturally found in brain and nerve cells and one which when taken into the human system is quickly converted into healthy living tissue.

This phosphate is already widely known among druggists and some physicians claim that through its use strength, energy, vigor and nerve force are frequently increased in two weeks' time.

Dr. Fredrick Kelle, Editor of New York "Physician," "Who's Who," says it should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital in the United States. As there are a great variety of so-called phosphates, those who wish to test this substance should be sure to get the genuine Bitro-Phosphate.

YOUR CATARRH MAY LEAD TO CONSUMPTION

Dangerous to Use Treatment for Only Temporary Relief.

There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and other distasteful features. The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its downward march until the lungs become affected, and then consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications.

S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh, because it goes direct to its source. It is a bottle today, begin the only logical treatment that gives real results. For free medical advice write Medical Director, 47 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

DELA VAN

DeLavan, Oct. 14.—Miss Lena Heckel, an employee of the Bradley mill, with her mother will leave this week for their old home in Alameda, Cal., for a five months' visit with Mrs. Heckel's son, who has been fighting with the allies in the late war.

If the weather continues good the paving will be finished in about 20 days. Mr. Birdall with a crew of men and a truck arrived in Delavan yesterday. Mr. Birdall has rented the Jaham house near the springs. The cooking will be done here, but all employees must procure their meals there. An office will be opened in a room in the Odd Fellows' hall.

Miss Zella House is enjoying a vacation at her home in Whitewater. Will Palmer is enjoying a vacation at his old home in Ironton.

Donald La Fars is able to be out again after his severe illness. J. J. Phoenix returned yesterday from his trip to Ft. Worth, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sturtevant and Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Beloit, left last night in the former's car for Nashville, Tenn., to visit relatives and friends for three weeks.

Mrs. L. Gross is visiting this week, with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Monn, Rockford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Palmatier and children have moved into one of the O'Neil residences on Bradley avenue.

The Misses Frances Stevens and Alice Kilbride spent over Sunday at the home of Miss Grace Pease, Beloit.

Miss Iva Blumer spent Sunday at her home in Darien.

A number of persons expected to attend the Wisconsin Baptist state convention held at the First Baptist church in Janesville, this week.

They are: D. E. La Bar, Mrs. Charles Wright, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Mrs. H. Congdon, Miss Ruth Schelby, Miss Ada Peterson, Miss Laura, Mrs. B. Bowers, Mrs. C. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. C. Barker, Mrs. C. Richards, and Rev. and Mrs. Robert Kelley.

Miss Cora Spencer and her mother are moving into the C. Hart Hollister house on South Second street, recently vacated by J. Beattie and family.

Mrs. W. B. Tyrrell and little son, Junior, are visiting at her home in Elgin, Ill.

Horace La Pare is now employed at the Bradley Knitting mills.

Mrs. Claude Starr and daughter, Bernice, are visiting relatives at Ironton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walters visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sheard, Manchester.

Miss Alta Haerel has returned to her home at Harvard, after a few days' visit at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Elendahl.

Miss Anna Schunacher, while visiting in Chicago last week, was taken ill, removed to a hospital and operated on for appendicitis, last Friday. Her mother, Mrs. Henry Schunacher, and brother, Ernest, went to Chicago Sunday, returning Tuesday, with the report that she was making a good recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin and family attended the funeral Tuesday afternoon in honor of his fourteenth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Powers, Milwaukee, spent the week-end with their mother, Mrs. A. C. Powers, Riverside drive.

Born Oct. 18, to Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Humphrey, a son, Richard Ray.

Where Do YOU Get Off At

MR. WORKINGMAN and WOMAN? You who are always the victim of the High Cost of Living Problems. You buy CLOTHES for yourself and your family, they cost you more today than ever.

The clothes you have on now perhaps cost you twice as much as they did before. WHY? Stop a minute—think

NATURE'S MIRROR

When a woman is well and healthy—there's a sparkle in her eyes, a rose tint in her cheeks, and she has a rich red blood. There's elasticity in every movement and a spring in her step. Love comes to every woman who has bounding health—but when she is pallid, dull eyed, languid, she has no magnetism nor does she appeal to any man.

Such a change in feeling and looks!

After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged down by weakness of her sex—with eyes sunken, black circles and pale cheeks—such a woman is quickly restored to health by Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce. Checked too, in her case, after taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the skin becomes clear, the eyes brighter, the cheeks plump. It is purely vegetable, contains no alcohol.

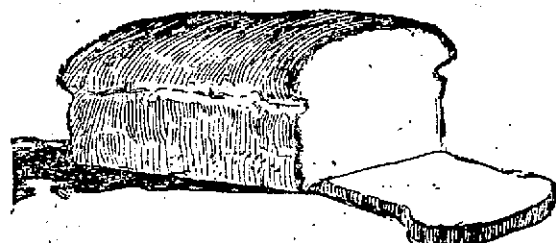

Druggists sell it in tablets or liquid. Send Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c for trial package.

BRIDE FINDS WAY OUT OF SILVER DILEMMA

Evansville, Oct. 16.—"Mother, it just can't be done. I've figured and fretted and fought, but figures don't lie and I can't make them. Will and I think we have it figured out to furnishings, but we can't begin to do that house justice—the way everything is these days."

"It is actually repulsive to me when I catch myself hoping someone will help us with an appropriate wedding present. It savors somehow of charity, and I can't stand it and I won't."

And hereupon the Indian Summer bride-to-be sank on the floor and cried, forgetting she was soon to be mistress of her own house.

"Do you know, my dear," said the comforting mother, "I noticed something in an advertisement in the Janesville Gazette that I think will help you."

"Advertisements!" put in the distressed bride-to-be, "advertisements may be all right for bargains, but they're no good when you just simply haven't got the money. In normal times, Will says, we could fix up our little home with what we have saved. But now—"

"But look at this!" exclaimed her mother. "Your rule on advertisements doesn't hold here. Here's one that will help you without money. It gives you a chance to earn just what you now lack. That picture shown there is accurate, too, for I saw one of them in Janesville yesterday."

"Subscriptions! Mother you know I could never sell a ham sandwich to a starving millionaire, much less get subscriptions for anything."

"But my dear, you can. My daughter can do anything that scores of other girls and women have already done. This offer was made several days ago, and girls and women all over Rock county are gladly responding to it, and some outside the county as well. First thing you know, dear, some neighbor girl friend of yours here in Evansville will be sporting one of these beautiful community chests and then you'll wish you had. For it really is a wonderful offer."

"Well, I'll consider it. What is the offer, mother? Just what is it necessary to do?"

"Why it says here that if you get eight subscriptions to the Janesville Daily Gazette, paid one year in advance, at $4 each, the chest of silver is yours. The chest contains 26 pieces of the bridal wreath pattern of Onida community par plate silver and retails for over $20. And just think of it dear, you get the whole chest for only eight subscriptions of a year each. Why, you can get those right here in the neighborhood."

"Mother, you're a brick! I see it now. Why I can think of four right now and that's half enough for the whole chest. Four more and Will and I have enough silver to last us a lifetime."

Told She Could Not Live Six Months Without Operation. Beloit Woman Tells How.

"Time and again," says Mrs. Ella Stoneburner, 1047 West Grand Ave., Beloit, Wis., "I was tempted to turn on the gas and thus end my misery. For fifteen years I had a pain over my kidneys. It was a constant pain and my back ached so that it almost drove me to distraction."

"Four doctors all said I had gall stones and that unless operated on, I could not live six months. Other doctors told me I had rheumatism, liver and kidney trouble. I was bilious."

"I had no end of misery. My stomach bloated so at times I almost choked to death. When I saw Abbott Bros. Compound advertised and read the wonderful story of how it was renewed, I began taking it and it helped me at once. The pain over my kidneys is gone and I have had no more backache since taking this compound is to tone the liver, overcome conditions of the kidneys, cleanse the system, purify the blood and remove the cause of rheumatism. SOLDIER BONUS CASE TO DELAY COUNTIES

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Oct. 16.—That the litigation has been started on complaint of David Atwood to test the soldiers' bonus law and educational law, will have a tendency to delay the voting of bonds by the counties for this purpose is the general opinion here. Only a few counties have so far indicated that they desire bonds for the purpose.

It will be impossible to argue the bonus measures in the supreme court before Nov. 8, a decision will not follow before early in December according to the regular custom at the court.

Four counties have written Secretary of State Meritt Hall that they desire to raise their soldier bonus money by bonds. Two counties are considering the matter and one county plans to raise the sum necessary in part by taxation and part by bonding.

Counties will not know until Oct. 25 the amount of the tax which will be required. In no case will the amount of bonus tax exceed three mills on the general property valuation. This limitation appears in the statute.

GEORGE BIDWELL DIES AT EVANSVILLE HOME

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Evansville, Oct. 15.—George Bidwell, aged 81 years, a resident of Rock county for 67 years, and of Evansville for 46 years, died at his home here Thursday.

Mr. Bidwell was born in Columbia, N. Y., in 1838. He was a veteran of the Civil war, being discharged from the service just before the close of the war because of gunshot wound.

He is survived by his wife and six children, three sons and three daughters. The funeral services will be held from the home on North Madison street at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

KISS COSTS VICAR $10

London.—The Rev. Herbert John Martin, vicar of Holy Trinity, Bromley, Chatham, was fined $10 at Chatham for kissing Annie Elizabeth Gladys Topping, who was in his service as a day girl.

Mr. Martin admitted that on one occasion he may have given the maid a red and white rose in the garden and told her that one stood for pure love and the other for passionate love.

R. R. Conductor Was Surprised

Didn't Think It Possible For A Medicine To Do What Tanlac Did For Him

"I have gained twenty pounds since I commenced taking Tanlac, and feel as well and strong as ever did in my life," said E. L. Walters, a well known freight conductor on the Madison division of the Chicago and Great Western railroad, and who lives at 447 Cass St., Milwaukee, Wis., the other day.

"I had a bad case of stomach trouble," he continues, "and when I commenced taking Tanlac I was just about knocked out so far as health and strength was concerned. Everything I ate just seemed to lie in the pit of my stomach in a solid lump, and I would have the worst sort of cramping spells. Then there were times when I would lie so bloated up with gas I could hardly get a good breath. Often this gas would get up into my chest and cause my heart to palpitate something awful. It has been a long time since I would dare touch meats or heavy food of any kind. I finally got so weak and run down that I could hardly put in a day's work. I just felt bad all the time, and was so nervous I never got a good night's sleep. My troubles had been going on for about six years, and although I was under treatment and took many different kinds of medicine, my condition gradually got worse all the time."

"Then I heard about Tanlac, and as it was doing other people so much good, I decided to give it a trial and see if it would help me. Well, sir, I didn't think it was possible for any medicine to help a man as much and as fast as Tanlac has helped me. Why, I have started big appetite now I can hardly get enough to eat. I am so well and strong now that I can take my run out on time, and nose it at the other end of the line on time. Everything I eat agrees with me perfectly, and I am gaining both in weight and strength every day. Tanlac has put me square on my feet again, and I will always have a good word to say for it everywhere I go."

"TANLAC is sold in Janesville by all leading druggists."
